

Privacy Policy

FACTS: WHAT DOES CENTIER BANK DO WITH YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION?

Why?

Financial companies choose how they share your personal information. Federal law gives consumers the right to limit some but not all sharing. Federal law also requires us to tell you how we collect, share, and protect your personal information. Please read this notice carefully to understand what we do.

What?

The types of personal information we collect and share depend on the product or service you have with us.

This information can include Social Security number and income, account balances and payment history, and/ or credit history and credit scores.

When you are no longer our customer, we continue to share your information as described in this notice.

How?

All financial companies need to share customers' personal information to run their everyday business. In the section below, we list the reasons financial companies can share their customers' personal information; the reasons Centier Bank chooses to share; and whether you can limit this sharing.

REASONS WE CAN SHARE YOUR INFORMATION

For our everyday business purposes, such as to process your transactions, maintain your account(s), respond to court orders and legal investigations, or report to credit bureaus

For our marketing purposes-to offer our products and services to you

For joint marketing with other financial companies

(Note: Centier does not share information for this reason)

For our affiliates' everyday business purposes- information about your transactions and experiences

(Note: Centier does not share information for this reason)

For our affiliates' everyday business purposes- information about your creditworthiness

(Note: Centier does not share information for this reason)

For our affiliates to market to you

(Note: Centier does not share information for this reason)

For non-affiliates to market to you

(Note: Centier does not share information for this reason)

Questions? Call your local branch or the Centier Service Center at 219-756-2265

What We Do

How does Centier Bank protect my personal information?

We take seriously our obligation to safeguard your confidential information. Your information is accessible only to employees who need the information to provide products or services to you. All of our employees understand their responsibility to maintain the privacy and confidentiality of your information. We maintain physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards to ensure the confidentiality of your information. We monitor new technology and upgrade our systems as needed to best protect your information.

How does Centier Bank collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you

- open an account or deposit money
- pay your bills or apply for a loan
- use your debit card

Why can't I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes-information about your creditworthiness affiliates from using your information to market to you sharing for non-affiliates to market to you State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing.

Definitions:

Affiliates- Companies related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and nonfinancial companies. Centier Bank does not share with its affiliates.

Nonaffiliates- Companies not related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and nonfinancial companies. Centier Bank does not share with non-affiliates so that they can market you.

Joint marketing- A formal agreement between nonaffiliated financial companies that together market financial products or services to you. Centier Bank's joint marketing partner includes a credit card company.

Other important information

From time to time, policies and procedures may change due to changes in the law or in our operations, at which time we will notify you of these changes, as required by law.